

Words from patient, Luis R.

Testimonials help me because it is good to know there is treatment that helped others so it might help your own issues. Most people have a certain problem. For myself, it was my back. Originally, I had a pinched nerve and could not move. I was introduced to chiropractic care at the age for 15.

Testimonials are important for patients because it is a first hand account of what helps each person.