

Words from patient, Megan W.

Testimonials help me because I like to hear about other patients experiences to make decisions about treatment and doctors.

I believe testimonials are important for patients because we aren't aware that chiropractor care helps an issue we have unless we read about another patients testimonial. We often think chiropractic care is only for the neck and back pain.